

In the short story 'When the Wasps Drowned' what is, 'the long days continued to melt into one another' an example of?